

For the Record

- West German Air Force Maj. Rolf Schiller, 35, was found dead at his home in Cologne after apparently taking an overdose of sleeping pills, the tenth reported suicide among German government officials and officers in the past five months.